FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, }                                   8:13CR144
                                    Plaintiff,                                    } vs.   ORDER
DENNIS LEWIS,    }
                                    Defendant.                                    }

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Dennis Lewis (Lewis) (Filing No. 20). Lewis seeks until August 12, 2013, in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Lewis's counsel represents that Lewis will file an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Lewis's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 20) is granted. Lewis is given until on or before August 12, 2013, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between July 15, 2013, and August 12, 2013, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 15th day of July, 2013.
